Your Top Three To Do's

As the Magical New Year of Rotary Approaches

Fourth of July - and its fine Dunwoody Family of Rotary tradition - is on the top of our minds. Think about:

1. Joining the float building party this Sunday, June 30
2. Baking cookies, brownies, etc. - and packaging them in snack bags of two - for sale at our July 4 hot dog stand
3. How you 'd like to participate on the 4th ... as a parade walker (contact Denise) or at the hot dog stand (contact Paula), and whether you might have a small propane tank Ed Holliday could borrow to fire up the hot dog grill.

All the details follow ... read on!

We need volunteers to make this event a success:

- Float Decorators
- Parade Walkers
- Hot Dog Stand Volunteers ... and at gas tank for our hot dog grill (let Ed Holiday know if you have a gas tank we can use)
- Cookie Bakers - packaged in snack bags for sale at our hot dog stand
- Float Breakdown Helpers

For Parade Walkers, contact Denise Brodsky at denise@clubhouseatlanta.org. For other roles, contact Paula Shiver at paula@perimeterchamber.com.

Bring your loved ones for an unforgettable day of celebration and community!

Experience the Craft of Float Building - June 30

We have experts - and you're invited join in the fun! The photo here shows careful crafting of our 25th anniversary float.

Join us at Alison Norris's home to experience a long-practiced Dunwoody art form ... the ability to build a float that tells our story while enjoying food, fellowship and even a beverage! It's really a float-building party ... and many hands will make quick work of it. Bring your favorite beverage (BYOB) and a side dish to share. Plan to come together to decorate and enjoy a cookout afterward.

Here are the details for our float-building extravaganza:

- Date: Sunday, June 30
- Time: 5:30 PM
- Location: Alison Norris's Home, Maxstoke Manor, 5431 Trowbridge Drive, Dunwoody, Georgia 30338
- Bring your favorite beverage (BYOB) and a side dish to share. Let's come together to decorate and enjoy a cookout afterward!

Dunwoody Well Represented at Chamber Lunch

The club turned out in force for the recent Prosperity Partners Luncheon, co-hosted by the Brookhaven Chamber and Perimeter Chamber. Fourteen club members and spouses attended to hear Georgia Senator Jon Ossoff highlight his efforts in the Senate.
