The Friendly Breakfast Club

JULY 10, 2024

Three Top Things to Remember This Week

1. Reset your GPS for Friday meetings - starting this week we will be at the Embassy Suites, 1030 Crown Point Parkway, Dunwoody.
2. Next week, think college football and prospective members - Tony Barnhart will give us his annual assessment of what's to come in this year's college season. Bring a friend - especially one who might like to join our club.
3. Think fun - check out the baseball game and theater opportunities brought to you by Ken Levy and the Dunwoody Diners in August and September.

As most of you know, the Rotary Club of Dunwoody has supported the Dunwoody Nature Center for many years - most recently under Cathie Brumfield's leadership. Over the years, we have done clean up, helped save the ferns and native plants, provided camp scholarships, painted the building and had great opportunities to involve our families in service and fun!

Float Decorations; Call for Volunteers

What a great service opportunity - Anchor Place Respite Dunwoody helped us with our July 4 float! Our friends at Anchor Place filled 32 bags of goodies for walkers to hand out to children, and constructed and decorated a part of the float and made stars to jazz up the float banner. Watch for more pictures next week of all who gathered to support our float and hot dog stand!

If you're a trained Anchor Place volunteer, take a minute to visit Sign Up Genius and add your name to help on a Monday or Thursday. Mary says it's always good to know you have people in place!
