_	Celebrating the Power of YOUR Rotary Foundation By Margie Kersey This has been an amazing year for The Rotary Foundation in our district - and it's not over yet. The work you have done this year has changed the world a served as an inspiration for others. For that, thank you! You are on track to have the best overall giving for the past six (maybe longer!) While this is a cool thing to achieve; I don't ask you to give because DG Court or I might get a pat on the head (we won't). I am asking you to give because it is your donations that allot this district to fund all the amazing things you do with grants. [more]
