September 11, 2001

The Rotary Club of Sandy Springs will never forget.

The weeks and months, that followed the al-Qaeda terrorist attacks of 9/11 were a defining time for many. Though two decades have passed, Rotarians across the United States and the over 200 countries where we are represented will not forget.

Past Program

William McArthur - A new member of the Arch Klump Society

At an August meeting of the Rotary Club of Sandy Springs, District Governor Mary Ligon was on hand to recognize Will MacArthur as the District's newest Arch Klumph Society member and for his impactful contribution of time and money to The Rotary Foundation.

Will is a Past President of the Rotary Club of Sandy Springs, has served on our District TRF committee for several years and is currently an Assistant Governor. The Rotary Foundation's Arch Klumph Society is named for the sixth President of Rotary International, who started the Rotary Foundation here in Georgia at the 1917 Rotary International Convention. It honors individuals who have donated $250,000 or more during their lifetime to The Rotary Foundation.
