Vote, Vote, Vote!

Recognize Our Rotarians as Best of Perimeter - Vote Ends March 15

It's time to select the Best of Perimeter businesses and several Dunwoody Rotarians (and spouses) are up for selection. The Best of Perimeter is sponsored by Appen Media (owner of the Dunwoody Crier). In addition to club members' businesses, the nominees include other businesses that are friends of RCD. You may vote once each day per email address from now until March 15 - so please vote early and often! You may vote here: https://www.appenmedia.com/best_of_perimeter_2024/#/. Thank you for voting! The nomination and selection as Best of Perimeter means a lot to all of the local businesses involved.

Keep reading for a list of nominated businesses owned/managed by Dunwoody Rotarians (with apologies to anyone we missed!). [\[read more\]](#)

Anchor Place Respite-Dunwoody Presentation Draws Good Participation!

Last Sunday's presentation for Anchor Place Respite-Dunwoody attracted nearly 70 people - including these members of the Dunwoody family: Dick Game, Charlie and Anita Augello, George and Amy Stewart, Anne Glenn, Jennifer Shumway, Dottie and Griff Ransom, Hoshi and Baku Daruwalla, Bob and Andrea O'Brien, Ron and Louise Barden, and Kathy Brandt.
