Perry McGuire to address the Sandy Springs Rotary

Please give Perry a warm Rotary welcome.

Here is a quick bio:

Perry McGuire is the author of Nice, But Not Naïve And Other Lessons That I Learned From Chick-fil-A Founder Truett Cathy. Perry spent over 11 years as an attorney for Chick-fil-A, and during that time worked closely with Mr. Cathy on his business, personal, and charitable endeavors. Today, Perry is a partner in the firm of Smith, Gambrell & Russell, LLP, which is currently celebrating its 125th anniversary as an Atlanta law firm. Mr. McGuire has a general corporate law practice with an emphasis on franchise, mergers and acquisitions, and governmental affairs. He is a former state Senator and candidate for Attorney General of Georgia. Mr. McGuire has served on the State Board of Juvenile Justice and is a member of the Federalist Society. Mr. McGuire is a member of the Southeast Franchise Forum, is Treasurer of the Georgia Restaurant Association, and serves on the Legal and Legislative Committee of the International Franchise Association. He is also the Founding Chairman of the Franchise and Distribution Law Section of the State Bar of Georgia. Perry is married to Lauren, who is a Chick-fil-A franchisee, and they have four grown children. Perry serves on the Atlanta Board of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, and also serves on the Advisory Board of Emory's Winship Cancer Center. Perry is an 18-year cancer survivor.
