President's Message

Re-energized

After working hard over the last several weeks to get all of the citations and awards submitted to District 6900 and Rotary International, I needed an infusion of energy. Starting the week off with Read Across Roswell and ending the week with Teddy Keyserling stealing the show at our club meeting I am re-energized by their youth. I hope that you get a chance to volunteer (Roswell Relays) or engage with kids we serve (Interact Day) in the coming weeks and some of their energy rubs off on you too.

This Week's Speaker

Why The 2020 Census Matters

Alex Kaufman and Lisa Carlisle are a couple of our are representatives for the 2020 Census and will kick off a conversation this week about why the census matters.

Fran Phillips-Calhoun is the intergovernmental & interagency affairs manager for Fulton County Government. Her primary duties are guiding the development of the County's federal and state legislative agendas and securing competitive federal and other major grant funds to positively impact the lives of Fulton County residents. Additionally, she is overseeing the County's outreach efforts and 15-city coordination for the 2020 Census.
