Upcoming Program

Scott Johnson, Founder of The Warrior Alliance to address the Rotary Club of Sandy Springs

On Monday, August 31st Scott Johnson will be visiting the Rotary Club of Sandy Springs.

Scott is the Founder and President of The Warrior Alliance and has over 30 years of experience as a corporate software and consulting services executive. He began his non-profit career by establishing two non-profit organizations in support of people with disabilities and transitioning military veterans. Scott's business career spans numerous leadership roles in executive management, sales, operations and services to include Vice President-Global Services, PTC, Inc. and Area Vice President, Keane, Inc. In these positions, Scott's responsibilities included business strategy, merger and acquisitions, organizational change management, sales organization leadership, market development, outsourcing and operational profit and loss. His business experience spans federal and state government as well as business development across the Americas, Europe, Far East and Asia. Mr. Johnson graduated with high honors from Michigan State University where he received a number of academic awards and is a founding associate of the University of Alabama's Executive MBA MIS program.

All are welcome to visit the Rotary Club of Sandy Springs. Please come out and give Scott a warm Rotary welcome.
