President's Message

So Proud

Last Tuesday, Bruce Smith and I proudly accepted an award from Roswell High School Track & Field honoring Roswell Rotary for our 24 years of service to Roswell Relays. The best part of the evening was learning about the students and their accomplishments.

On Thursday we recognized the Tom Zachary, Stan Moses and Power of One scholarship recipients. Once again, my heart swelled as I listened to each students' achievements and heard of their plans.

I am so proud of these outstanding young leaders. Their future is bright.

ROTARY CLUB OF

Daniel Salinas, MD, is Chief of Community Clinical Integration for Children's Healthcare of Atlanta. He provides executive oversight for quality and patient safety, medical staff services, and affiliations. In addition, Dr. Salinas has worked closely with community providers to develop The Children's Care Network, one of the first pediatric, clinically integrated networks in the country, for which he also has executive oversight. He has also worked to advance Children's Behavioral Health and primary care strategies.

Dr. Salinas has a proven track record as a well-known pediatrician and physician leader committed to the care of Georgia's children. Before coming to Children's, he served as Regional Vice President and National Medical Director for WellPoint, Inc. Previously, he was Vice President and Medical Director for Blue Cross Blue Shield of Georgia and served in a number of leadership roles at Kaiser Permanente, Georgia where he also practiced as a pediatrician.

Dr. Salinas and his wife, Cindy, reside in Roswell and have two adult sons.

Food Distribution at Roswell City Hall

Thursday, May 20th we will be distributing 550 food boxes from the USDA Farmers to Families Food Box program. This program was designed and implemented as a temporary, emergency relief effort to respond to severe market disruption caused by a global pandemic.

We will set up in the parking lot at Roswell City Hall. Volunteers are needed to help unload the pallets and distribute as families drive through.

Contact Nancy Alterman at nanraa@bellsouth.net or 770-262-6300 on how you can help.
