President's Message

DG Number Three!

We had a packed house of district leadership to participate in the announcement of our next District Governor, Past President Gordon Owens. We congratulate Gordon and look forward to his leadership at a higher level!

Thank you to everyone who brought a toy or a gift card this last week for North Fulton Community Charities and the Drake House. Through your generosity many young children will learn the spirit of Christmas.

I am looking forward to this weeks musical program lead by Bruce Peoples and Kurt Hilbert as well as an inspirational speech by our very own Lee Jenkins. Come and show off your favorite holiday ugly sweater or suit for that matter! This is our last lunch meeting but don't forget to join us on the 22nd at Michael Agurkis' place on Canton St for some holiday libations and Christmas Caroling. I look forward to a second half of the Rotary Year..... but whos counting?

Wishing you and your family a Merry Christmas and Happy Holidays.

but after one year, his career was cut short by injuries. Along with being in business and ministry, Lee served for years as an assistant varsity football coach at Centennial High School and Lassiter High School. He serves on numerous national and local boards and is in high demand as a speaker at churches and conferences.

Lee has been married to his wife Martica for over 33 years and they have three grown children, Kristin (a UGA graduate), Martin (a Clemson graduate), and Ryan (an Arizona State University graduate).

We hope you will join us for some holiday music and an inspirational message of hope.

Got an Ugly Holiday Sweater?

Wear that UGLY SWEATER to the 12-16 meeting

Did you say contest?

Get ugly on Thursday...

That means find your tackiest, gaudiest, and yes, ugliest sweater or suit (President Terry might have one) and show your fellow Roswell Rotarians just how low your holiday attire taste can go! See you Thursday!!!

Wednesday, December 22nd 6pm
