What is Swamp Gravy?

Swamp Gravy is Georgia's official folk-life play. Based out of Colquitt, Georgia, Swamp Gravy has been performing since 1994. In 1996 they were chosen as a Cultural Olympiad Event and performed at Centennial Park during the Olympics in Atlanta. That same year they were picked to perform at the Kennedy Center in Washington, D.C. The Dougherty County Rotary Club is pleased to welcome SWAMP GRAVY to Albany, performing at the Kay H. Hind Senior Life Enrichment Center. Ticket holders will enjoy a crowd-pleasing blend of comedy, drama, and music that transforms southern life into unforgettable theatre. Proceeds benefit community service projects.
