The Object of Rotary is to encourage and foster the ideal of service as a basis of worthy enterprise and, in particular, to encourage and foster:

- * FIRST-the development of acquaintance as an opportunity for service;
- * SECOND-high ethical standards in business and professions; the recognition of the worthiness of all useful occupations as an opportunity to serve society;
- * THIRD- the application of the ideal of service in each Rotarians personal, business, and community life;
- * FOURTH- the advancement of international understanding, goodwill, and peace through a world fellowship of business and professional persons united in the ideal of service.

Of the things we think, say, or do
Is it the TRUTH?

Is it FAIR to all concerned?

Will it build GOODWILL and BETTER FRIENDSHIPS?

Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned?

Welcome Today's Program

Ralph Boston

Olympic Long Jumper

1960 Rome record setting Gold Medal

1964 Tokyo Silver Medal

1968 Mexico Bronze Medal

Until a few weeks before the 1960 Olympics, Ralph Boston seemed no more than an average long jumper. But in August he beat [Jesse Owens]' 25-year-old world record with a mark of 26-11¼(8.21) and went on to take the gold medal. In 1961 he twice improved the record, becoming the first man to jump 27 feet (8.23), but then lost the record to [Igor Ter-Ovanesyan] of the Soviet Union in 1962. Boston equalled that mark in August 1964, broke it the following month, and in May 1965, set his last world record with 27-5 (8.35). Boston won the AAU outdoor long jump for six successive seasons (1961-1966), the AAU indoor in 1961, and the Pan American Games in 1963 and 1967.

Competing for Tennessee State, he won the NCAA outdoor title in 1960. Boston was also a gifted performer in other events. In 1961 he was undefeated in the high hurdles and won the AAU indoor in 1965. He placed fourth in the 1963 Pan American Games high jump, and in that year headed the U.S. lists in the triple jump. Ralph Boston retired after the 1968 Olympics. He was later an administrator at the University of Tennessee.

He was inducted into the USA Track & Field Hall of Fame in 1974

The Courageous Challenge

Labor Day Weekend 2016 the Official Courageous Challenge was inaugurated with 26 Contenders grinding out 7610 push-ups over a 22 minute period. They also raised more than $10,320 to help turn the tide on Veteran suicide, build a culture of health in the law enforcement community and help all on the battlefield of personal despair.

What a great experience for those that volunteered at registration and counters. Rick, Ken & Susie, Deanna & Alexander, Pam and Carol.

With leader Ken Koons
