April 15 Program

Claire Citbor
Junior Champion Dog Handler

Claire Citbor is eighteen years old, and an academic junior at Kennesaw State University. She has shown dogs since she was eight years old and has had the privilege of traveling around the world showing at the most prestigious shows with some amazing dogs. She has been ranked nationally in many different breeds and competitions, and recently was chosen as a top ten junior handler in the world. She is currently majoring in criminal justice with aspirations of being both a canine officer and an FBI agent. She looks forward to sharing some of her experiences with us and having the opportunity to teach valuable members of the community about her passion.
