Dr. Willie Myles works for the Georgia Department of Human Services (DHS) where he serves as a Statewide Coordinator for Corporate and Community Partnerships for the Office of Legislative Affairs and Outreach. In this role, Dr. Myles supports the Department’s outreach efforts by creating and strengthening partnerships with organizations to aid Georgia’s vulnerable children, adults and families. To achieve this goal, he routinely seeks out opportunities with faith, nonprofit, education, social civic and corporate communities to provide information about the programs, services and needs of DHS’ customers.

DHS delivers a wide range of human services designed to promote self-sufficiency, safety and well-being for all Georgians.

The department is the largest agency in state government, with 9,400 employees and a budget of more than $1.8 billion in State Fiscal Year 2018. DHS comprises three divisions –Aging Services, Child Support Services and Family and Children Services – and 11 administrative offices.
