

Sounds of Strength: The Remarkable Journey of Pianist

Youngsuh Noh

Born in Seoul in 1994, Youngsuh Noh's musical journey began at the age of 5 when he first embraced the piano. His innate talent quickly garnered attention, culminating in the prestigious 1st Prize at the Hankook Ilbo Music Competition in 2004, marking the onset of a remarkable public recognition.

Since then, Youngsuh has graced concert halls across Asia, America, and Europe, enchanting audiences with his soulful performances. Over the years, he has recorded three captivating CDs, including "Four Seasons" by Maria Leontjewa in 2017, Maurice Ravel's "La Valse" in 2019, and Modest Mussorgsky's "Pictures at an Exhibition."

In February 2019, Youngsuh Noh completed his Master's degree at the renowned Korea National University of Arts in Seoul, embarking on a new chapter in Germany. Despite facing the challenges of Morbus Stargardt, a condition affecting his vision, limiting it to around 5 percent, Youngsuh's determination remains unwavering. Using a VR headset for reading sheet music and practice, he commits entire compositions to memory.

Currently pursuing a Concert Exam degree at Martin Luther University Halle under the guidance of Professor Jochen Köhler, Youngsuh Noh's story is not just one of musical prowess but also a testament to resilience and the indomitable spirit that fuels his artistic journey. Join us in celebrating the unique harmonies of his life and music.

Our Goal: Spreading the Word and Raising Awareness

This September, Youngsuh Noh wants to bring his enchanting melodies to Georgia. Our mission is twofold: to spread the word about this exceptional pianist and to raise awareness about the challenges he faces due to his visual impairment.

Youngsuh Noh serves as an inspiration not only to fellow musicians but also to individuals beyond the realm of music.

Why Support Youngsuh Noh:

Exceptional Talent:

Witness the magic of Youngsuh Noh's piano performances, showcasing an unparalleled level of skill and artistry.

Inspirational Story:

Youngsuh Noh's journey from adversity to triumph is a testament to the power of resilience and passion.

Raise Awareness:

Learn about Stargardt disease and contribute to the awareness of visual impairments, fostering a more inclusive and empathetic society.

Stargardt Disease

Beyond the glamorous stage lights, a profound challenge unfolds in Youngsuh Noh's musical journey. Afflicted by the apparent darkness of Stargardt's disease, his vision is reduced to around 5 percent. Nevertheless, Youngsuh defies this obstacle with remarkable determination. Utilizing a VR headset for reading sheet music and practice, he commits every musical nuance to memory. His extraordinary dedication and resilience are reflected not only in his melodies but also in the inspiring narrative that accompanies his musical journey.

Let's come together to celebrate the talent, resilience, and artistry of Youngsuh Noh. Help us make a difference in the world of music and advocate for awareness of visual impairments.
